HOT WEATHER DISHES.

During the warm weather cold meats and meat loaves are popular, as they may be prepared the day before using, keeping well for several days on ice.

Jellied Veal—Wipe a knuckle of veal and cut it into pieces, put it in a kettle with two quarts of water, bring slowly to the simmering point and simmer for two hours; then add two onions, one blade of mace, one bay leaf, twelve whole cloves, six pepper corns, half a teaspoonful of ground allspice and simmer one hour longer. Take out the knuckle, carefully remove the bones and put the meat into a square mold. Roll the liquor until reduced to one quart, strain, add a quarter of a cup of good vinegar, and salt and pepper to taste, pour it over the meat and set away to cool over night. When cold turn it carefully out of the mold.

Veal Loaf—Chop three and one-half pounds of veal and a half pound of ham, both uncooked; add to them one cupful of bread crumbs, one teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of onion juice, half a teaspoonful each of pepper, sage, cloves and allspice, mix thoroughly with two well beaten eggs and press into a pan to mold. Turn out on a baking pan and brush with beaten egg and bake in a slow oven for two hours, basting three or four times while baking with butter and boiling water.

Italian Cheese—Take one pound of veal, one and one-half pounds of calf's liver, half a pound of ham, one small onion, half a teaspoonful of sage, two tablespoonfuls of chopped parsley, one-fourth of a box of gelatin, two teaspoonfuls of salt, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of black pepper and a dash of cayenne. Wash the liver, cover with boiling water and let stand five minutes, then drain and dry. Chop the liver, the veal, the ham (all uncooked) very fine; then add the sage, parsley, salt, pepper, cayenne and onion, grate. Mix well. Grease a mold and press the meat tightly into it, cover and steam three hours. Remove the cover and pour off the broth and add to it the gelatin which has been soaking in cold water to cover for half an hour.

Our Heavenly Father.
All of heaven and all of earth cannot contain God. There is something of himself left for the hearts of men. Just as the water which spills out of the full bucket is as good as any of the water in the bucket, so that part of God which dwells in the hearts of men is just as much of God as that of himself which dwells in heaven.

Living Influence.
Whatever definitions men have given of religion, I find none so accurately descriptive of it as this; that it is such a belief of the Bible as maintains a living influence on the heart and life.—Cecil.

Result of Christian Temper.
Peace is the proper result of the Christian temper. It is the great kindness which our religion doth us, that it brings us to a settledness of mind, and a consistency within ourselves.—Bishop Patrick.

Multitudinous Brain Bag.
"You don't mean to tell me you ever doubt the wisdom of the majority?" "Well," responded Senator Sorghum with deliberation, "what is a majority? In many instances it is only a large number of people who have got tired out trying to think for themselves and have decided to accept somebody else's opinion."

Economics.
Sawyer—"And so you do your own laundry?"
Wringer—"Certainly. I wash everything but my own collar, and they don't need it because they're celluloid. I simply wipe them off with my shirt sleeves and then wash the shirt."

When Interest is Awakened.
Problem—If you see a man with a smile on his face, cut a paragraph from a newspaper and place it carefully in his billfold, what is your deduction?
Answer—You are right. The clipping mentions him.—Judge.

ONE OF THESE DAYS.

One of these days when my work is through
And at last I have nothing at all to do,
I am going to travel the road that goes
To the home of my boyish joys and
I'll pause and lean on the old front gate
Where I loitered until the hour grew late,
And I'll strive to picture the misty past
Where once I dreamed of a future vast.

One of these days I will idly swing
'Neath the spreading leaves where the robins sing,
And I'll watch the grapes, as the hours go by,
The place to a region fair and strange;
Drinking from earth and air and sky,
Imagination again will change
The place to a region fair and strange;
I will thrill at the monstrous shapes which pass
Through the jungle depths of the weeds and grass.

I'll see the elves in the leafy nooks,
The friends that I met in the wonder books,
And then, as I weary, I'll pause to hear
A song that is tender and sweet and clear,
Sounding throughout it and above
Is the exultation of mother love;
And perhaps with her voice I will lift my own—
And find I am singing alone—alone!

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(Copyright, 1919, Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR AUGUST 31

SELF CONTROL (Temperance).

GOLDEN TEXT—Daniel 1:8-21. GOLDEN TEXT—Every man that loveth the mastery is temperate in all things.—1 Cor. 9:25.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Romans 14:1-2. 1 Cor. 9:24-27. PRIMARY TOPIC—Keeping away from things which may harm us. JUNIOR TOPIC—The story of a boy who became a strong man. INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Learning self-mastery. SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—Self-control the secret of success.

It is somewhat strange that the lesson committee should select this Scripture as a temperance lesson, for it says nothing about temperance as ordinarily understood. Total abstinence from intoxicating liquor should be the law of every Christian's life, but it is not so taught in this Scripture.

I. Daniel Tested (vv. 5-7).
Daniel, while a tender youth, was torn from home ties and made a captive in a foreign land to be trained for service at the royal court. In order to be of the largest service it was necessary that he be brought to love the king and nation, and be detached from his own people and religion. To accomplish this they—

1. Appointed him a daily provision of the king's meat and wine (v. 5). This was for a twofold purpose: (1) To gain the good will of Daniel and his friends. Such recognition would encourage them to give themselves up to the king's service. (2) To supply them with food deemed suitable for their physical and mental development. To partake of the food offered was against Daniel's religion. His conscience would not allow him to partake thereof. Doubtless the meat and wine had connection with heathen feasts.

2. Changed name (v. 7).
The object of this was to obliterate national and religious connection, and to identify them with the heathen people. Daniel, which means "God is my Judge," was changed to Belshazzar, meaning Bel's prince; Hananiah, which means "The gift of Jehovah," to Shadrach, meaning illuminated by the sun god Rak; Mishael, which means "Who is as God," to Meshach, meaning who is like the goddess Sheeshach; Azariah, which means "Jehovah is our help," to Abednego, meaning the servant of Nego. Behind this change of names was the attempt of Satan to wipe from the minds of these young men the name of the true God and to cause them to lose their place of separation.

II. Daniel Standing the Test (vv. 8-14).

Though a captive in a foreign land, Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's meat and wine. His home training was such that in this trying hour he had the decision of character to stand firm for his conviction. He obeyed the dictates of his conscience. While unflinchingly loyal to God he did not lose his gentlemanly courtesy. He requested to be tested ten days in the food which the law of his God allowed, agreeing to abide by the results. Loyalty to God and conscience need not interfere with gentlemanly behavior.

III. Daniel's Reward (vv. 15-21).
1. Physical health (v. 15). Godly and temperate living pays. The king's meat and wine would have been very palatable, but to have partaken would have been a compromise with his conscience. The exercise of self-control in this matter kept his conscience pure, and also improved his physical health.

2. Mental growth (vv. 17-20). He was ten times the superior of his associates.
3. Socially (v. 19). He stood before the king. He not only was next to the king, but became president of the college of wise men, and prime minister of the empire, continuing through several dynasties (v. 21).

4. Spiritually (v. 17). God revealed to him Nebuchadnezzar's dream and gave him visions stretching across the history of the world.
The secret of Daniel's success was (1) conscientiousness; (2) loyalty to God; (3) decision of character; (4) prayerfulness; (5) diligence; (6) courtesy.
